Financial Wellness: Your Money, Your Goals

Training Overview

This interactive training is based on a financial empowerment approach which provides exciting tools and resources to help address many financial topics, products, and services that inform participants and build their financial skills.

By the end of this training participants will be able to:

- ✓ Recognize the importance of values, needs, and wants around money and finances.
- ✓ Demonstrate a basic level of comfort discussing and utilizing financial tools
- ✓ Create an action plan for when and how to introduce tools with the people served.
- ✓ Know where to refer people served for more in-depth financial services.

Our goal is to help equip human services professionals with the confidence and skills they need to assist their clients struggling to meet basic needs in achieving improved financial stability and economic security.
